		(Optional) I hereby give permission to Incight to use my name AND/OR picture to appear in any media AND/OR on Incight's website. I understand that such material may divulge my identity AND/OR my name. I realize working with Incight may merit publication in professional journals, television, or newspapers. I will make no monetary or other claim against Incight for the use of these items. The Incight Scholarship is a long-term commitment to students with disabilities entering and attending college. Our scholarship commitment is for four years or until graduation, whichever occurs first. The renewal of the scholarship each year is contingent on the student's involvement in each of Incight's programs: scholarship, mentoring and internships. If these services are not utilized by the applicant, annual renewal will not be considered in the following year. This is to certify that I understand that receipt of award funds is contingent upon my full-time attendance during 2009-2010 at a trade school, college or university. If I am a recipient, I give permission to Incight to release information to the media (with exception of financial status) and affiliates. I certify that to the best of my knowledge, all information contained in the application is true and accurate. I understand that all decisions made by the Scholarship Committee are final.

Essays: Each essay should be no longer than 250 words in length. You may use an extra piece of paper.

- a) Only 16% of people with a disability succeed in earning a college degree and only one in five people with a disability achieve full time gainful employment. Incight believes this is due to HandiCRAP. If you are awarded this scholarship, how can you help change HandiCRAP and these statistics?
- b) Describe how your disability affects your daily life.
- c) Use your creativity to tell us about who you are – draw a picture, take a photograph, write a poem; it's up to you. You may use an extra piece of paper.
